GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY

Notification No. G. 1788/P. P. 29-19-2 dated 24th July 1919.

The Government of His Highness the Maharaja have great pleasure in announcing, for the information of the public, the birth of a son to His Highness the Yuvaraja at about 6 P. M. on Friday, the 18th SERIAL No. 2.

Birth of a son to His Highness the Yuvaraja.

July 1919. In honor of this most auspicious event, they are pleased to declare, under the explanation to Section 25 of the Negotiable Instruments Regulation, VII of 1917, Tuesday, the 29th July 1919, to be a public Holiday throughout the State.

Letter No. 5/118-19 dated 25th July 1919 from the Inspector General of Prisons to the Chief Secretary to Government.

SERIAL No. 3.

Referring to the special releases on the 29th July 1919 on account of the celebration of the auspicious event of Birth of a son to His Highness the Yuvaraja, the Superintendent, Bangalore Central Jail, brings to notice that there are 16 juvenile convicts in the jail at present who deserve special consideration and recommends that such of the juvenile offenders who have been convicted for the first time for minor offences such as petty thefts &c., may be released absolutely.

2. In the case of life-term convicts who have yet to undergo a sentence of one year or less, he states that there are only seven such convicts and recommends that their conduct in the jail for the last one year previous to the date of release may be taken into consideration instead of their whole period of sentence in the jail.

3: I enclose herein a copy of the Superintendent's letter on the subject for ready reference, and request you to be so good as to get orders of Government in the matter and communicate the same to me before the 29th instant.

Letter No. 933/F. 33 dated 25th July 1919 from the Superintendent, Bangalore Central Jail to the Inspector General of Prisons in Mysore, Bangalore.

With reference to your Memo No. 1521-30/118-19 dated the 24th July 1919 forwarding a copy of Government Order No. G. 1737-87/P.P. 29-19-1 dated the 24th instant directing the release of prisoners (1) under sentence of one month and less and (2) sentenced to transportation for life who have only one year or less out of their sentences to serve in the jail and whose conduct in the jail has been uniformly good (3) the grant of one month's remission to other prisoners for every year or fraction of a year of the sentence they have yet to undergo, provided their conduct in the jail has been satisfactory on the 29th July 1919 viz., the day of celebration of the auspicious event of the birth of a son to His Highness the Yuvaraja of Mysore, I have the honor to state that there are at present only seven life-term convicts in this jail, who have yet to undergo sentence of one year or less, but their conduct in the jail has not been good throughout their period of sentence, but has however been good during the preceding year and even some time previous to it.

2. I request therefore your kind instructions as to whether the seven prisoners referred to above may be released on the said date considering their present good conduct in the jail.

3. I venture to suggest that one year or upwards preceding 29th July 1919 may be taken as the period of good conduct in the case of life-term convicts of the class referred to above, as otherwise it will be hard to find any prisoner with a clear sheet during the whole period of his sentence.

4. There are 16 juvenile convicts in the jail at present and their case deserves special consideration on this auspicious occasion. I therefore beg to submit that such of the juvenile prisoners who have been convicted of minor offences such as petty thefts &c., for the first time may be released absolutely.

5. Life-term convicts who have one year out of their sentences to serve will be released as per para 4 of the Government Order, but those who still have a month more than a year will get as per para 3 of the Government Order a remission of only two months at the rate of one month for every year or a fraction of year of the sentence they have yet to undergo. This seems to deserve reconsideration.

6. I solicit the favour of very early orders in the matter.

Read paras 3 and 4 of G. O. No. G. 1737-87/P.P. 29-19-1 dated 24th July 1919 directing the release of certain prisoners in celebration of the auspicious event of the birth of a son to His Highness the Yuvaraja. SERIAL No. 4.

In the case of life-term convicts referred to in para 4 of the Government Order read above, uniform good conduct during the period of one year preceding the 29th July 1919 will entitle such prisoners to the benefit of the clemency.

My dear Sir,

His Highness approves of the suggestion to observe the Namakarnam Day of the New Prince in a fitting manner through-out the State. A salute will be fired at Mysore in the morning, and it may be arranged to be fired at Bangalore also. Poojas and prayers may be arranged in the principal temples and mosques in the State; some prisoners may be released and a Public Holiday may be declared on that day in honour of the happy event. His Highness thinks that your presence will be enough at the Namakarnam Durbar and that it is not necessary for the Councillors or the Chief Secretary to come.

My dear Sir,

With reference to your D.O. No.52 dated 21st instant Re: Celebrations on the Namakarnam Day of the new Prince, I enclose two drafts prepared by the Secretariat. I shall be glad, if you will kindly submit them to His Highness and communicate to me his approval of the same with any modifications considered suitable.

In regard to prisoners, most of those eligible for release have been released in connection with the Peace Celebrations, but the measure of clemency proposed in para 3 of the draft order will perhaps benefit a certain number of people. I am consulting the Inspector-General of Prisons as to whether any other choice of prisoners will be more suitable and I shall be glad if His Highness will permit me to modify that portion of the order in case it is necessary in the light of the suggestions of the Inspector-General of Prisons.

Dated Bangalore, 22nd July 1919.

Dear Sir,

With reference to your D.O. No. 126 of date asking for my opinion re- the release &c., of prisoners in connection with the Birth of a Prince to His Highness the Yuvaraja of Mysore, I have to state that, as has been contemplated by Government, all prisoners under sentence of one month or less confined in the Jails and Lock-ups of the State on the "Namakaranam" Day might be forthwith released and all others might be allowed a remission of one month per year or portion thereof of the sentences they have yet to undergo.

2. In the case of prisoners sentenced to transportation for life, I would suggest their release if they have only one year or less out of their sentences to serve in the Jail on the "Namakaranam " Day, provided their conduct has been uniformly good.

3. I would also suggest the release of civil prisoners who have been confined in the jails and Lock-ups for for a debt not exceeding Rs. 100/- and who are , through poverty, unable to pay the same; provided their debts are defrayed by Government.

Dear Sir,

Referring to the special releases on the 29th July 1919 on account of celebration of the auspicious event of Birth of a son to His Highness the Yuvaraja, the Superintendent, Bangalore Central Jail, brings to notice that there are 16 juvenile convicts in the Jail at present who deserve special consideration and recommends that such of the juvenile offenders who have been convicted for the first time for minor offences such as petty thefts &c., may be released absolutely.

2. In the case of life-term convicts who have yet to undergo a sentence of one year or less, he states that there are only 7 such convicts and recommends that their conduct in the jail for the last one year previous to the date of release may be taken into consideration instead of their whole period of sentence in the jail.

3. I enclose herein a copy of the Superintendent's letter on the subject for ready reference, and request you to be so good as to get orders of Government in the matter and communicate the same to me before the 29th instant.

An Humble Tribute

(On the occasion of the Birth of a Son TO H. H. THE YUVARAJA OF MYSORE)

REJOICE, rejoice, rejoice we now
At this most happy hour and glad :
A bright and radiant star is born
In Mysore's royal house renowned !

As when the silver sphere, the moon
Begins his nightly round, the sea
With joy heaves up, all Mysore now
Is filled with happiness and glee !

What wonder now that gentle showers
Should fall ! the Angels from above
On this our royal prince, on this
All Mysore's high delight, have poured
Their choicest blessings warm with love !
The lights that now in clusters shine
Do give expression to their joy !
Oh ! are the stars all gathered here
To happily rejoice with pride
Now at the birth of this our prince
Of the Lunar line !

Our most beloved Highnesses !
We loyal subjects, young and old,
Congratulate you on the birth
Of your fond darling prince, the hope
Of this our glorious Mysore State !

May Goddess Chamunda this prince
Bless with long life and health for e'er ;
May this our prince so dear be crowned
With honour, happiness profound !
